

Graduate Student Workshops

The Office of Graduate Studies (OGS) has partnered with the Thesis Office, University Writing Center (UWC), Student Health Services (SHS) and the Texas A&M University Libraries to present a series of workshops for graduate students.

OGS Overview and Deadlines

Tuesday, Sept 22, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

Learn important deadlines, procedures and how OGS can assist you (by OGS staff)

Thesis Office

Tuesday, Sept. 29, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

Includes important steps for writing your thesis/dissertation (by Thesis Office staff)

Writing and Academic Integrity

Tuesday, Oct. 6, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

About writing, pitfalls of plagiarism and the importance of academic integrity (by UWC)

Writing an Abstract

Tuesday, Oct. 13, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

How to write an appropriate, concise and effective abstract (by OGS staff)

Health Insurance

Tuesday, Oct. 20, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

Find out about health insurance options for graduate students (by SHS staff)

Library Services

Tuesday, Oct. 27, 4-5:30 p.m. in Rudder 601

Learn about services offered at the campus libraries and online (by Texas A&M Libraries staff)

Email grad-workshops@tamu.edu to RSVP for any of the workshops or for any related questions.

For more information, visit <http://ogs.tamu.edu/current/graduate-student-workshops/>.